Owing to the low wheat yield in Ohio this year the State Association of Millers and Grain Dealers is seeking the co-operation of the State Board of Agriculture in stimulating interest in wheat growing. It is the intention to offer prizes for the banner fields.

Philip Bowman, near Lisbon, had his entire crop of celery destroyed by the June flood, and he also lost his onion crop. Mr. Bowman has for several years made a specialty of these two crops and been very successful. He now has 80,000 celery plants growing in his fields and expects to realize handsomely on the crop.

The Newton Falls News says it is a curious and a gratifying fact that neither the mayor nor any member of the present council uses tobacco in any form. Such a condition is as rare as it is commendable nowadays. Every man of them is a good, clean citizen, without a single one of the vices which attach to such a vast majority of men in official life.

During the week beginning Aug. 26 Ohio's capital city will be host to thousands of visitors who will attend the centennial celebration in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the location of the state capital at Columbus. It is to be a quiet and dignified celebration of a historical nature, and will reflect the development of the state during the last one hundred years. President Taft and other officials of the national and state governments will be in attendance.

One busy five-dollar bill can do more in a community in a day than five hundred dollars stuck in an old stocking can do in a year. Start a five-dollar bill out in the morning and it could be kept circulating until it would do a hundred dollars' worth of purchasing, and people handling it would in the mean time secure $100 worth of goods, while the merchants would have sold the same amount. That same bill might eventually get back to the fellow who started it out.

State officials who are members of national associations composed of state officials, such as commissioners of insurance, common schools, banking departments, fire marshals, etc., cannot draw money from the state to pay their expenses in attending such organizations or belonging to them. This is what the attorney general holds in a ruling to Auditor of State Pullington. "The statutes do not require the heads of departments to belong to these associations, therefore, the expense is not legal," says Attorney General Hogan.

The Tribune hopes the telephone merger will not go through in Ohio. It would mean a monopoly by the Bell people and eventually the price of telephones would go up and the Bell people would again have the users of telephones by the neck. All this talk about saving in running expense, if the two companies were merged, may be all right but the saving would not benefit the users of telephones or better the service. It would go to enrich the stockholders of the Bell company and the ultimate consumer would again get the worst of it.—Warren Tribune.

INVESTOR'S VIEW

Of the New Amendment, as Seen by the Wall Street Journal.

Under the caption "The Referendum—And Afterwards," the Wall Street Journal prints the following comment upon the proposed amendments to the constitution of Ohio:

Here are a few gems from the new constitutional amendments of the state of Ohio, for which its citizens are to vote on September 3 next. There are 41 amendments, formulated by a small but active and organized minority.

A majority of nine on a jury will decide civil cases.

"There is to be no limit on the amount recoverable in case of the death of an employee."

"The initiative and referendum will only require the petition of three per cent of the voters."

"Under the title of 'Welfare of Employees,' there is a provision for the establishment of a minimum wage for labor."

"Compulsory workmen's compensation is included, and covers occupational diseases."

"An eight-hour day for public work is instituted, with the abolition of injunctions in labor disputes."

"The liability of state banks is increased by a hundred per cent."

"Besides taxes on inheritances, incomes and franchises, municipal and state bonds, sold at a higher rate because they were exempt, are to be taxed."

"Fifty million dollars of state bonds are to be issued for 'good roads.'"

"These are a few of the provisions; and if the amendments are carried, as they usually are when the voter is balloting for something he does not understand, all bonds in the state of Ohio, will suffer a serious decline."

Liquid capital invested there will move out, wherever it can. New bonds, for roads or anything else, will pay a higher interest rate, corresponding to the state's credit and good faith. Stocks of corporations doing business in the state must suffer. In the face of the higher taxation, rents and the prices of commodities will necessarily advance and materially increase the burden of the small consumer.

"In spite of the inevitable advance in rents, the value of real estate, and especially the taxable value, will decline, because the state will be unable to place high capital where the state taxing authorities cannot get at it."

"Is it any wonder that lawyers, brokers and bankers are advising the sale of securities subject to these revolutionary and confiscatory measures? Doubtless a period of unemployment and general hard times will reach sense to the people of Ohio. But at what an appalling cost!"

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, and they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Former Senator Beveridge of Indiana has abandoned the Republican party to cast his lot with the Progressives, and will be temporary chairman of the new party's national convention in Chicago.

ACCEPTS PACKERS DISSOLUTION PLAN

ATTORNEY GENERAL WICKERHAM DECIDES BEEF TRUST NO LONGER EXISTS.

Washington, D. C.—The beef trust, which the government has fought for ten years, is no longer in existence in the opinion of the department of justice. Attorney General Wickersham has accepted the plan proposed by the packers for the voluntary dissolution of the National Packing Co., a holding concern owned by the Morris, Swift and Armour packing companies. The attorney general decided also that the department of justice will not institute the civil dissolution suit which it had threatened to file August 1.

Here are the other things he did: Accepted the assurances of the packers that active competition will be revived.

Informed them that as soon as it develops competition is being restrained, further prosecution will be started.

Called their attention to an injunction order affirmed by the United States supreme court in 1906, prohibiting the Morris, Swift and Armour packing companies from combining to restrain trade.

OFFICIALS FACE BRIBE CHARGE

Detroit Aldermen and Secretary of Committee Accused of Accepting Cash to Influence Their Vote.

Detroit, Mich.—Through the agency of Detective Burns and his dictagraphs, 13 Detroit aldermen and the secretary of the common council committees were caught red-handed in accepting bribes for voting to close a certain street for the Wabash railroad. The Wabash is not involved, the officials not knowing of the use of the railroad's name by the detectives in setting the trap.

The leader of the hoodlums, Alderman Thomas Glinnan, got $1,000 and the secretary of the council committee, Eddie Schreitter, received half that amount. Both have confessed.

Excise Bill Passes Senate.

Washington, D. C.—The senate, in its consideration of the excise bill, by a vote of 37 to 25, repealed the reciprocity law in its entirety and levied a duty of $2 a ton on print paper.

A combination of Republicans and progressive Republicans voted into the excise bill the Cummings amendment for a permanent tariff commission.

With these amendments the excise bill was carried by a vote of 36 to 18. The excise bill would levy upon all persons, firms or copartnerships an annual tax equal to 1 per cent of net income in excess of $5,000.

Third Party in Minnesota.

St. Paul, July 31.—The third party in Minnesota was launched here without a discordant note. The convention, in which every congressional district was represented, practically steered clear of state politics, confining itself to speechmaking, lauding Colonel Roosevelt, adopting resolutions, choosing delegates and alternates to the national convention at Chicago and presidential electors.

Ships Collide, 200 Saved.

Boston, July 31.—The sidewheel steamer City of Rockland, from Kennebunk river to this port with 200 returning vacationists, was so seriously stove in at her bow in a collision with the steam collier William Chisholm of New York that she sank to her guards. The accident took place off Boone island, about 20 miles from York, Me. The passengers were all transferred to the Chisholm.

Nurse's Death Puzzles.

New York, July 31.—That Dorcas Snodgrass, the pretty Mt. Vernon nurse, whose body was found in an inlet of Catskill creek, a quarter of a mile from the Hudson river, met her death by drowning, was agreed to by physicians who are working on the case, but the mystery of whether she was murdered or committed suicide remains unsolved, without a single clue in the possession of the authorities.

Teddy Starts for Chicago Saturday.

New York, July 31.—Colonel Roosevelt said that he will leave for Chicago over the New York Central at 4 o'clock Saturday, instead of Sunday as he had planned.

HOUSE DISAGREES WITH THE SENATE

REJECTS THREE BILLS THAT HAD BEEN PASSED BY THE UPPER BRANCH.

Washington, July 31.—That the Democrats have little hope of the passage of tariff legislation at this session of congress was shown when the house returned to the senate without approval and without a request for conference the wool bill passed by the senate.

Explaining this unusual procedure, Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee said that he thought the senate might recede from its position and substitute for the bill it had sent to the house, the Democratic bill or some measure on which the house could meet the senate through compromise propositions. The bill rejected by the house was the La Follette bill, presented by Senator La Follette over a year ago.

Led by Underwood, the Democrats of the house refused also to agree to the sugar bill as amended by the senate and to the excise income tax bill carrying amendments repealing the Canadian reciprocity pact and continuing the tariff board. Conferences with the senate were invited on these bills to see if the differences between the house and senate could not be adjusted or compromised.

The repeal of the Canadian reciprocity pact was defeated in the house by a vote of 127 to 107, party lines being loosely drawn. About 23 Democrats from the middle west voted with a majority of the Republicans for the repeal, while several Republicans voted against it.

ASKS SOLONS FOR 'NICE NAME'

Seventeen-Year-Old Girl of Madison, Ala., Writes Letter to the United States Senate.

Washington, July 31.—The following letter, addressed "Legislator, Washington, D. C.," has been delivered to the United States senate:

"Madison, Ala.—Dear Sirs: I will ask a favor of you, if you please. My former name is Rundles, and I don't like the name, and decided to ask the Legislature for the favor of sending me a nice name."

"I am a young lady of 17 years of age. Please do your best in selecting a real nice name. I will pay the cost, so let me hear from you by return mail. Yours respectfully, 'Miss Allie Rundles.'"

KEEPS HIS VOW TO BAR WHIP

Representative From Pennsylvania Fathers School Law After Lashing Received Forty Years Ago.

Washington, July 31.—Forty years ago little Willie Wilson was late for school at Blantyre, in Scotland, and the schoolmaster soundly thrashed him for it. Willie took an oath that when he got to parliament he would pass a law making such behavior on the part of teachers a penal offense. He never went to parliament, but in the house he took steps to make good his oath. As a representative from Pennsylvania he introduced a bill making corporal punishment in the District of Columbia a serious offense.
